

Rehabilitation Undergraduate Sequence of Study

Students complete their freshman and sophomore general education requirements prior to registering for upper-division courses. A student must complete 120 acceptable units to graduate (including a minimum of 42 upper division units).

CORE Required Courses (16)

The program of study meets requirements for being listed in the Undergraduate Registry of the Commission on Rehabilitation Education (CORE).

SERP 370a	Introduction to American Sign Language	(4)
SERP 414	Introduction to Disability Studies and Services	(3)
SERP 416	Perspectives and Narratives of Disability	(3)
SERP 481	Interviewing and Client Services	(3)
SERP 483	Supervised Casework in Rehabilitation	(3)

Rehabilitation Electives (18 units from the following)

SERP 200	Social Perspectives on Disability as Reflected in American Media and Literature	(3)
SERP 400	Survey of Special Education and Rehabilitation	(3)
SERP 402	Behavioral Principles and Disability	(3)
SERP 404	Cultural and Linguistic Diversity in Exceptional Learners	(3)
SERP 455	Rehabilitation and Aging	(3)
SERP 476	Rehabilitation and the Public Offender	(3)
SERP 478	Prevention of Addictions	(3)
SERP 479a	Psychiatric Rehabilitation	(3)
SERP 479b	Psychiatric Rehabilitation	(3)
SERP 484	Problems of Drug Abuse	(3)
SERP 497k	Sexuality and Disability	(3)
EDP 340	Research in Education	(3)
	or
PSYC 230	Psychological Measurement and Statistics	(3)

Emphasis (18 units)

To be determined with advisor